COURSE DESCRIPTION:

Original title for this course was "MINDFULNESS: Awareness Practice". Participants who took the course under this title will not receive credit again under the new title.

This course will engagingly blend philosophy, science, and mindfulness as a path to wellness and happiness for the teacher, along with providing a foundation for whole-person learning in the classroom.

In each assignment, through the research presented, and personal experience, you will explore the nature of mindfulness and its effect on your body, feelings, and thoughts. In turn, these insights, tools and inner development of equanimity will assist you in creating an inspired classroom environment of trust and safety.

Throughout the course, you will be shown simple and highly effective mindfulness meditations for your home practice. The focus will be on releasing anxiety and troubled feelings, increasing body energy, forming deep heart connections, and joy for teachers and students.

This course is applicable to all content areas and all school personnel, K-12. The text: Full Catastrophe Living (Revised Edition): Using the Wisdom of Your Body and Mind to Face Stress, Pain, and Illness, Jon Kabat-Zinn and Thich Nhat Hanh, Bantam (Revised edition) 2013 (Paperback - about $13. through Amazon)

The Co-Instructor for this course is Mike Seymour, M.S.

LEARNING OUTCOMES: Upon completion of this course, participants will have:

1. An understanding of evidence-based research for reducing anxiety and distress
2. Capability to transform your relationship to psychological and physical stressors leading to enhanced physical and emotional well-being
3. Capacity for greater kindness, mental clarity, creativity, and happiness
4. Competency to share mindfulness methods with your students
5. Awareness for being whole-heartedly present for your students
6. Enhanced relationship and sense of connection with your students

COURSE REQUIREMENTS:

Completion of all specified assignments is required for issuance of hours or credit. The Heritage Institute does not award partial credit.

The use of artificial intelligence is not permitted. Assignment responses found to be generated by AI will not be accepted.

HOURS EARNED:

Completing the basic assignments (Section A. B. LEARNING APPLICATION

In this section, you will apply your learning to your professional situation. This course assumes that most participants are classroom teachers who have access to students. If you do not have a classroom available to you, please contact the instructor for course modifications. Assignments done in a course forum will show responses from all educators who have or are taking the course independently. ?Feel free to read and respond to others' comments. Group participants can only view and respond to their group members in the Forum.

Assignment #8:

Choose either Option A or B

Option A

Adapt a unit of lessons to reflect what you've learned in this course.

Implement your lessons with students in your classroom.

Write a 4 – 5 page commentary on what worked well, the challenges you faced, what didn't work, and how you could modify the next time.

Include any student feedback on your lessons. To maintain privacy, please do not refer to students in your paper by their actual name, but rather use an alias or designation such as "Student A."

Share what you've learned with other teachers taking our courses by checking the lesson library box when you submit your lessons.

Option B Use this option if you do not have a classroom available

Adapt a unit of lessons to reflect what you've learned in this course (Do not implement it).

Write a 4- 5 page article considering your present work situation and how you might complement your work with mindfulness methods If not teaching at the moment: 1. Consider difficult moments that you've had with colleagues that have been mitigated or gracefully worked out through mindfulness methods. 2. Develop a mindfulness program for your colleagues for creating a harmonious work environment that also enhances their personal well-being.

The following is "encouraged but not required":

Please refer to the guidelines on our blog <https://www.hol.edu/blog> prior to writing your article.

Please email a copy to Renee Leon (renee@hol.edu) THI blog curator and media specialist.

Indicate whether or not you are OK with having your article considered for publication on our website.

Subject Line to read: (Course name, Blog)

Assignment #9: (500 Level ONLY)

In addition to the 400 level assignments complete two (2) of the following options.

Option A) Research the effects of mindfulness and meditation in schools, and its relationship to academic results and classroom behavior. In short descriptions, bullet points, visuals, and or videos, document your significant findings. Be sure to use at least three resources and document them in your findings. Develop a plan for the implementation of these ideas. (1-2 pages)

OR

Option B) Create a presentation (PowerPoint, Google Slides – minimum of 15 slides) to share with your staff summarizing each section from this course's six (6) learning outcomes. Be sure to focus on practical strategies/resources for educators. When you submit your presentation, please include the date, audience, and comments or feedback received.

OR

Option C: Another assignment of your own design, with instructor prior approval.

C. INTEGRATION PAPER

Assignment #10: (Required for 400 and 500 Level)

QUALIFICATIONS FOR TEACHING THIS COURSE:

Joseph Britton, B.S., at Princeton University, was formerly a Mechanical Engineer, designing energy systems and, in a different department, an Instructor teaching Yoga, Movement, and Meditation.

Upon moving to and living in Japan for 28 years, Joseph co-founded Japan's first executive speech training company based in Tokyo, Media and Communications. Several years later, at Osaka Metropolitan University, he was honored to become a Professor of Communications & Mindfulness for 22 years. During this culturally rich experience, he spent many years personally studying with renowned Zen Buddhist master Uchiyama Kosho Roshi in Kyoto, Japan. He has taught seminars in communications and mindfulness through-out Asia, Europe and North America.

To understand the dynamics of how we generate and project energy, he also became a Hellerwork body & movement practitioner.

Presently, Joseph is a Adjunct Instructor at Portland Community College in the Community Education Department teaching 3 courses: Mindfulness – Awareness Practice, Mysteries of Dying, and Public Speaking with Mindfulness.

He is also a Hospice Volunteer accompanying people who die alone.

Co-Instructor:

Mike Seymour, M.S., has been associated with K-12 education since 1990, most recently in his role as President and Director of The Heritage Institute, a program of continuing education for K-12 teachers.

Mike has a B.S. in Comparative Literature from Columbia University and a M.S. in Marriage & Family Therapy from Seattle Pacific University.
